Crossing the Line

Understanding family carers’ experiences of providing personal care for someone living with dementia

Can you help?

- Are you a current or previous family carer of a person with dementia?
- Have you direct experience of providing personal care to a person with dementia in the past ten years?

If yes, we would like to invite you to participate in a survey.

The survey will help us to understand family carers’ experiences of providing personal care for someone living with dementia.

Based on the findings, we will develop resources for use by family carers to enable them to provide personal care.

Personal care can include a variety of different activities such as helping with going to the toilet, washing, bathing, dressing, mouth-care, shaving, haircare, foot and nail-care.

All responses will be anonymous.
